I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

STATE BOARD OF FINANCE CREATED

Act Passed in Both Houses of the General Assembly-Sunday Bill Passed the Senate is Defeated in the House-Measure Consolidating Labor and Factory Commissions Rejected in the Senate.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Hartford, May 11.—Tuesday was selected house-cleaning day in the house of representatives when all matters on the table and the foot of the calendar were added to the order of the day, in connection with the special order which was the act concerning the der which was the act concerning the taxation of railroad street railway, water, gas, electric, power stock in-surance and miscellaneous corporasurance and miscellaneous corporations. Before the calendar was reached, a big batch of reports, favorable and unfavorable, mostly the latter, were received and the latter were rejected and the others tabled for calendar and printing. When the house session opened on Tuesday there were just 732 bills in the file. This was the sixty-minth legislative day and, in a way, it was in keeping with the efficient work of the gallant Sixty-minth of Civil war fame. Senator Isbell is desirous of achieving a short session
under his leadership and that's a reason why next Tuesday has been selected as adjournment day. As a matter ed as adjournment day. As a matter of fact the session will be no shorter than that of a year ago, although the adjournment will be reached earlier. for there have been more Friday ses-sions than ever before and Monday sessions were introduced for a first time. Had the legislature convened have been a record session for brevity as about twelve average legislative days have been wasted from that cause. It is not cock-sure that the egislature will adjourn next Tuesday

Concerning Sunday Observance. The act concerning the observance of Sunday created a long discussion during which an amendment was pass-ed and later reconsidered, which agreement with the senate in failure to pass the bill. The text follows: Section 1, Any person who shall perform, or require an employe to per-form any secular labor, or engage or require an employe to engage in any nusiness, except works of necessity or nercy, or keep open any store, shop, warehouse, or manufacturing or me chanical establishment, except for the sale of merchandise required by necessity or mercy; or sell or expose for sale any property except such as is required by necessity or mercy; or conduct or engage in any theatrical play, picture show, concert, exhibi-tion, ball game, or entertainment for which a price is offered, or admission fee or other fee is charged, or directly or indirectly required or exacted, be-tween 12 o'clock Saturday night and 12 o'clock Sunday night, shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

Sec. 2. The provisions of section or shall not be construed to prohibit any amateur game, picture exhibition, con-cert, or other amateur recreation on unday, provided such game, picture exhibition, concert, or recreation shall not disturb public worship, or the pub-lic peace, and provided no fee for atendance is charged or received direct or indirectly.

Minister Morton Protests.

Mr. Morton, of Saybrook, a Congregational minister, said the law concerning the Sabbath is a mighty old s older than the law of Moses and with all unfortunates who as fronteed in the law of God, as old its grasp. He wants every as man's nature. If this law passes, victim to know how he was you are violating a law of men's nature. Man is made for God as has no rest until he rests in Him. A stat-ute law cannot stop the sun from shining nor can it oppose man's nature. The state has the right to help man to preserve his nature in statute laws. Keep the Sabbath laws as they are and make strong men and strong wo-

People Should Settle.

Mr. Martin of Orange, said the Sun-day question would not be settled right until it was settled by the people. Times are changing. In the olden times people worked out of doors, but now most are employed in shops and need fresh air and recreation. Our present law is in a mixed-up condition and is continually disregarded. He be leved in due reverence of Sunday favored a law that was understand-able, but he would go farther and leave the whole matter to local option, under legislative restriction, and believed in progressive legislation and a step for-the amendment, spoke in favor and cure in every ease.

'I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. Aler you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked for means of curing your Rheumatism your may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly eatlefied to send it. the amendment, spoke in favor and Mr. Taylor of Danbury spoke in opposition. Mr. Shaw of Redding sided in with the gentleman from Danbury. Mr. Rogers of Litchfield said he favored reconsideration and had voted for the amendment under the supposition that it made the penalty $2,500. The amendment was reconsidered. Mr. Emerson of Roxbury, a minister, was permitted to speak on the main proposition and was opposed to any change in the existing Sunday law. Mr. Backus of Thompson spoke in opposition to the bill and was opposed to liberalization of the Sabbath and this was an entering wedge that should not be driven home.

Wanted Postponement. Mr. Taylor of Danbury spoke in op-position. Mr. Shaw of Redding sided

Wanted Postponement. Mr. Reilly of Bridgeport said the boys who collected coins on Sunday to baseballs, did not commercialize Sunday any more than did the good deacons who passed the contribution plate in the churches and that the bill adopted in the 1913 session was good enough and moved for inefinite postponement.
Mr. King of Fairfield favored the ton opposed, and on went the talk until an hour and a half was spent in the discussion, although it was only day. Mr. Hoyt said the bill under discussion was drafted by clergymen, which demonstrates that even clergymen disagree, as Mr. Morton had opposed the views of gentlemen of his own denomination.

The motion of Mr. Kelley for the indefinite postponement of the bill was lost by a vote of 105 to 80.

The People Are Communication asked for the consideration of the matter from a purely fair standpoint.

Mr. Brooks of Torrington said he was willing to accept reduced dividend insurance checks to save the state from bankruptcy and hoped every amendment presented would be killed and that the bill would go through as planned by the committee.

State Needs Manner of the matter from a purely fair standpoint.

Mr. Brooks of Torrington said he was willing to accept reduced dividend insurance checks to save the state from bankruptcy and hoped every amendment presented would be killed and that the bill would go through as planned by the committee.

The People Are Opposed.

Mr. Sherwood of Westport said that only three persons appeared in favor of this bill, while it was opposed by clergymen representing many thousands, Dr. Murray, chancellor of the Catholic diocese of Hartford, alone representing $400,000, Mr. Sherwood was opposed to the bill as it would make a holiday of Sunday, to all except persons who would commercialize the day for personal, pecuniary profit. It is a question whether we are to continue the New England Sabbath or the Continental Sunday. The bill presented is not the same that was presented by the Congregational clergymen. The present law is good gymen. The present law is good enough and it is well to leave well enough alone. Mr. Garlick of Bridgeport said it was not for this legisla-ture to say how a man should keep the Sabbath day holy.

Measure Is Defeated. Mr. Allen of Willington made mo-tion that when the vote be taken it prevail. The bill was then put upon the passage and lost by a vote of 122 to 87. This means dispersion This means disagreeing action Pawcatuck Health Officer. The act appointing a deputy health officer for Pawcatuck in the town of Stonington, passed in the house, was indefinitely postponed in the senate. Dr. Griswold, of the committee on public health and safety, stated that there was no need for an additional health officer, and to appoint one would establish a bad precedent and he suggested that the bill be rejected. Mr. Hyde said that Mr. Babcock of Stonngton, who was much interested in this matter, was not present and a motion to table prevailed.

State Board of Finance. The act to create a state board of finance and defining its duties, was opposed by Mr. Stoddard, of Woodbridge, who said there was no need for such a board and the only benefit would accrue to the members of the board. Mr. Perry of New Haven spoke in advocacy of the bill, which provides that the governor shall appoint a board of three electors, who with the treas-urer, the comptroller and the tax com-

The committee on conference made report on the act concerning the use of vehicles in public highways, and report was accepted as amended by the senate. The amendment provided that a police officer may inquire the name of the person in charge of any vehicle on any public highway and if correct name is not given, the penalty is a fine of $50. Petition Not Received. The house concurred with the senate in declining to receive a petition in aid of enlistments in the Connecti-cut National Guard, and the petitioners were given leave to withdraw. County Commissioner Bill. The senate rejected the resolution which was passed in the house, to pay Edward T. Lyons of Hartford $1,058, for expenses incurred to establish his title as county commissioner and other appointees of the governor. The house voted to insist, and Messrs. Peckham of Willimantic and Martin of Orange were appointed the committee on the part of the house, Corporation Taxation. When the house reassembled Tuesday afternoon the order of the day was proceeded with. The first matter was an act concerning the taxation of miscellaneous corporations, which had been passed in the senate with three amendments. The so-called corporate excess tax amendment was that a two per cent. tax increase an increase in capital. This amendment was passed. A second amendment would require in-surance companies to pay tax on state bonds which were bought under guarbonds which were bought under guar-antee that they were to be exempt from taxation. Amendment adopted, and was one of minor importance to make plainer the reading of the act.

Hawen' Amendment Killed. Another amendment offered was by Mr. Hewes of Farmington, which provided that the tax on insurance be changed from one-half to one-quarter of one per cent. He said he had been brought up in an insurance atmosphere, that his father and his father-in-law were presidents of insurance company. He asked that the matter be considered fairly even if the amendment did emenate from a democrat interested in insurance companies was wrong and the companies had been discriminated against, for the taxation required should be raised on a more general assessment. This is a double tax. The present tax of one per cent, per share, which represents a share in the event of dissolution. The taxpayers are the stockholders of the property insured and both are to be taxed if the bill prevails. All other corporations are not required to pay a double tax. If a corporation is taxed that same property abould, not also be taxed upon tax that and not the other corporations in the same class, which Mr. Hewes not as strong as the prevailing law.

Mr. Sanderson of New Haven favored the bill and Mr. Pelton of Clinton opposed, and on went the talk until an hour and a half was spent in the discussion, although it was only surance taxation is now greater than oreditable to the legislators, for the in-surance taxation is now greater than in any other state in the union. He asked for the consideration of the mat-

had given the whole matter careful panies were treated fairly, and there was no desire to drive insurance com-panies out of the state. These com-panies are doing a big business and on afford to pay the tax.

Mr. Hewes said the questions raised by him had not been answered, just as he had expected. If this proposed tax prevails, it means the payment of about 50 per cent. of income in taxation. The Hewes amendment was lost by a vote

Appeals from Speaker.

When the Peasley amendment was eached, which would divert the money eccived from the towns in taxes from corporations direct to the state, Mr. Isbell raised the point that the amendment was out of order, as it was not germane to the original bill. The point of order was well taken and Mr. Peasley appealed from the decision of the speaker, which was the first like appeal of the session. Mr. Peasley explained that the amendment meant whether the $760,000 received was to remain in the state treasury or be divided among a few favored cities. The ruling of the chair was sus-tained with but one dissenting vote.

Huxley Amendment, Too.

Mr. Huxley of Stamford offered an amendment that the taxation of gas, water and electric companies be fixed at 1 per cent., instead of 1 1-2 per cent. Mr. Sanford of New Haven spoke in favor of the amendment, as local taxation was already burdensome. Mr. Brooks of Torrington said the owned stock in three corporations but was favorable to an increase in the said the members were doing a like said the members were doing a like said the members were doing a Huxley Amendment, Too. but was favorable to an increase in He said the members were doing tax. Mr. Foord of Stamford, Mr. good work and "let us help the Bartlett of Tolland and Mr. Perry of along." The amendment was adopt New Haven expressed themselves against the amendment. Mr. Sher-wood of Westport said he was paying 0 per cent, on the gross income on the little property he owned, which was much more in proportion to what is pald by these companies. The Huxley ent was lost Peasley's Plea Failed. Mr. Peasley of Cheshire offered amendment striking out two sections of the bill which relates to the franurer, the comptroller and the tax commissioner, shall constitute the board, the governor's appointees to have a salary of $500 a year. The several departments, institutious, etc., receiving state ald shall submit itemized estimates of expenses and disbursements for the two fiscal years next ensuing requiring appropriations. Mr. Fenn, of Wethersfield, favored that part of the bill, and offered award. Fenn, of Wethersfield, favored that part of the bill, and offered amendment that the section which bestowed to a board legislative powers, be stricken out. Long talks were made favorable to the passage of the bill by Messrs. Isbell of Ansonia, and Shultz of New Britain. Mr. Spencer of Suffield said the governor favored the bill. Mr. Bowers of Manchester also favored the bill. The Fenn amendment was lost by a vote of 98 to 58. The bill was then passed.

tion is upon the gross receipts of the company. Mr. Peasley spoke at much length and demonstrated that he was not in harmony with those intent on rushing business through just for the sake of early adjournment. He said this bill as reported would tend to drive the insurance companies out of the state. Mr. Rogers of Litchfield said the governor favored the bill. The Fenn amendment was lost by a vote of 98 to 58. The bill was then passed.

Committees of Committees of Committee of conference.

Senator Pierson of the Fifth district was appointed on the committee of conference on the bill in reference to the city court of Bristol, on which there was not in harmony with those intent on rushing business through just for the sake of early adjournment. He said this bill as reported would tend to drive the insurance companies out of the state. Another Point of Order. Mr. Stoddard of Woodbridge offered amendment which would not change the rate of taxation but provided that the local tax shall continue as in the past. Mr. Isbell raised point of order that it was not within the rules, which requires that amendments to this bill shall have been printed in the journal. The speaker said the point raised was correct, but as Mr. Peasley had been permitted to proceed without objection he would allow the presentation of Mr. Stoddard's amendment. This was dis-cussed by Messrs, Isbell of Ansonia, and Taylor of Danbury. The former gentleman said this amendment was not required and if adopted the meas-ure would have to be returned to the senate and received response that he was not afraid of anybody or anything. Mr. Stoddard said the collection of local taxes was not referred to in any way and should be referred to in this bill. Mr. Isbell said the committee way and should be referred to in this bill. Mr. Isbell said the committee taxation and fixing the amount of exwas willing to take a chance with the pense at $1,500; authorizing banks and people on this bill as presented. people on this bill as presented.

The Stoddard amendment was rejected and the original bill was passed.

The joint standing committee on appropriations reported favorably an act to supply deficiencies for the two years ending Sept. 30, 1915, as follows: Motor vehicle department, $6,000; state ures. Helping Bremen Workingmen. To keep down the cost of living for the workingman in Bremen, the city is building homes in the outlying districts, for which the laborer pays 500 Senator Bree moved that the vote be marks ($125) a year, and owns when Several members entered discussion. Mr. Brooks of Torrington favored the adoption of the bill. So did Mr. Taylor of Danbury, who explained the difference between the chief of the state police and the chief of the state police and the chief of police in the cities, and advocated the motion to reconsider be tabled. The motion of Senator Isbell to table the motion to reconsider was carried by a vote of 17 to 14.

During the vote Senator Molloy stood the low buildings, without all giving the constant of the low buildings. The tiny little houses contain three majority.

The tiny little houses contain three majority. The houses are

"I wish to ask the senator from the Second if he knows what he is voting on?" asked Senator Purcell.

"I know perfectly," replied Senator of uniform construction and color, being a tasteful brown cement, Each has a tiny grass plot or garden in front, Jermany.

Nearer the business center of the city are larger and somewhat more pretentious buildings—mostly two-family houses—where laboring men can live with surprising cheapness. Like the smaller places they eventually become the property of the families who live in them.

Greatest Argument Against It. There are those who insist that Mr Bryan's adoption of it is proof enough that prohibition is a false principle, since he has been on the wrong side of everything else. - St. Louis Globe-

Deleted by the Censor. In lauding Colonel Roosevelt as a great historian, the attorney for Mr. Barnes probably excepted those historic remarks the colonel made about Mr. Barnes.—Chicago News.

Bryan Returned the Favor. Well, anyhow, Mr. Wilson will leave the presidency with at least one am-bition in life achieved—Bryan has been knocked into a? cocked hat.—Boston LEGAL NOTICE -
